ADDITIONAL DETAILS

- The event fee for a National League winter event is $2,200.
- The winter event fee covers the entry fee into the USYS National Championships should a team qualify.
 - Second-place teams advancing to The NL Cup Playoffs have a minimal fee that covers referees and admin
- Each event weekend includes 100 total teams
- The size of events leads to opportunities to collaborate with ODP, possible Tier 2 integration, etc.
- Avoids conflicts with over-used December dates and recruiting dead periods

NEW NATIONAL LEAGUE CUP

LEAGUE IN-SEASON PATHWAY

WHY INTRODUCE THE NATIONAL LEAGUE CUP?

- Survey of club directors indicated 75.5% wanted a National League Cup to be established
- Club directors rated the importance of National League regional events as 4.22 out of 5, and they rated the importance of a postseason league event as 4.06 out of 5.
- Better localized college recruiting opportunities
- Survey of college coaches found that 53% of recruits are found locally (within 3 hours of institution)
- Format is clean and easy to understand for college coaches, club coaches, parents and players

RECAPPING THE WILDCARD SELECTION PROCESS

- All wildcard teams come from the National League winter events
 - Top 10 overall teams in each age group from National League winter events qualify to the USYS National Championships
 - BOYS - seeds 11-20 (10 teams) are NL Cup wildcards
 - GIRLS - seeds 11-21 (11 teams) are NL Cup wildcards
- A geographically-seeded blind draw will determine wildcard team placement for Playoffs
- All teams in 13U age group come from league play (no winter events to pull from)
